

LINCOLN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

LOAN OF TEXTBOOKS TO NON-PUBLIC STUDENTS

Lincoln residents whose children attend non-public schools are eligible to borrow the following textbooks for the 2010/2011 school year: Science, Math, Modern Foreign Language, English/Language Arts and History/Social Studies. Return and ordering of books will be at the Lincoln High School Community Room (back of building) June 16, 17, 18, 2010 from 9am-12pm and 1pm-3pm. Fees will be assessed for damaged books and must be paid before new books are issued. Borrowers of books that are not returned will be charged the replacement cost and will not be issued books unless replacement costs have been paid. Late application for books that require ordering of new books will not be honored.

Provide complete title, author, publisher, copyright date and 10 digit ISBN. Requests will not be honored until currently loaned books are returned. Books must be on the state list of approved books.

Textbooks for the 2010/2011 school year can be picked up August 18, 19, 20, 2010 from 9am-12pm and 1pm-3pm at the location noted above.

Updated information is available at our website: www.lincolnps.org along with the textbook request form. If you have any questions, please email Rhonda Romano at romanor@lincolnps.org.

Georgia Fortunato
Superintendent of Schools